SECTION 5. The said corporation is also authorized to borrow money in sums not exceeding one thousand dollars at any one time, and at a rate of interest not exceeding ten percent per annum.

SECTION 6. In the management of its business concerns, said corporation is hereby authorized to appoint such agents, officers, and attorneys for that purpose, as from time to time it may be deemed proper.

SECTION 7. Each subordinate commandery under the jurisdiction of the aforesaid Grand Commandery, now in existence, or which may hereafter be chartered by the same, is hereby also declared to be a body politic and corporate, by and under the name, style and number set forth in their respective charters, and by such designation they may respectively sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, prosecute and defend against all suits arising in law or chancery, in all the courts of this state. The said subordinate commanderies respectively, shall be capable in law of purchasing, holding, or receiving by purchase, gift, or otherwise, and of selling and conveying real and personal estate for the benefit of said subordinate commanderies, respectively.

SECTION 8. So far as is applicable, the provisions of sections four (4), five (5) and six (6) of this act shall be applicable to each of said subordinate commanderies.

SECTION 9. In case any subordinate commandery shall cease to exist, all its properties, records, and franchises shall vest in the Grand Commandery aforesaid.

SECTION 10. This act shall be held and deemed a public act and shall be liberally construed by all courts for the benefits of said corporation.
SECTION 11. This act to be in force from and after its passage.

WILLIAM BROSS,
President of the Senate.

FRANKLIN CORWIN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Approved March 7, 1867.
RICHARD J. OGLESBY, Governor.

Attest: SHARON TINSDALE, Secretary of State.
NAME

SECTION 400. The title of this body is “The Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Illinois.”

OF WHOM COMPOSED

SECTION 401. It shall consist of the members enumerated in the Constitution of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America.

SECTION 402. The Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of The United States of America, is hereby adopted and made a part of the Statutes of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Illinois.

ANNUAL CONCLAVE

SECTION 403. This Grand Commandery shall assemble within 120 days of the end of the fiscal year of each year in the city under contract with the conclave committee, for the election of officers, to hear official reports of the officers and of the Constituent Commanderies, and for the transaction of such business as the welfare of the order may demand; provided, however, that the Grand Commandery may meet in annual conclave at such other time and place in the State of Illinois, as it may, from time to time, determine by a majority vote at the preceding annual conclave, conditioned, that the Grand Commander may change the time or place, or both. The Grand Commandery shall be convened in ample form at the time appointed for each conclave, immediately after which the proceedings of the last session shall be read, unless dispensed with.

SECTION 404. The Commander, Generalissimo, and Captain General, for the time being, of all constituent Commanderies under this jurisdiction, being unable to attend the Grand Conclave in person, shall each have the power to appoint as his proxy over his own signature, a member of the same constituent Commandery as said officer. Such proxy shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of his principal, at such Grand Commandery Conclave. A proxy does not by virtue of such appointment become a member of this Grand Commandery. He shall, before acting, produce acceptable evidence of his appointment.

Each member present in person, or by proxy, shall have only one vote.

REVENUES

SECTION 405. Revenues necessary for support of this Grand Commandery shall be derived from the following sources. Unless otherwise stated, they shall be based upon data shown by the annual reports of the constituent Commanderies filed with the Grand Recorder at the close of each fiscal year (May 31), and all fees, dues, assessments and other indebtedness (except “F” below) shall be paid to the Grand Commandery at the time of filing such report on or before July 1 each year.

membership in such Commandery during the fiscal year; a knighting fee of ten dollars ($10.00).

C. For each member in Good Standing except (1) those members whose dues have been remitted because of inability to pay same, (2) members who have purchased Life Sponsorship Certificates, (3) Members who are Patrons or Associate Patrons of the Knights Templar Eye Foundation, Inc.; the annual eye foundation assessment levied by Sec. 18 ½ (G. E. C.) one dollar ($1.00).

D. For each member, such annual Grand Encampment per capita dues as may be from time to time levied by the Grand Encampment upon this Grand Commandery. The Finance Committee shall specifically submit the per-capita amount of this charge as part of the appropriation recommendation at each Annual Grand Conclave. (As of 2018, the Grand Encampment per capita dues are Nine dollars and 00 cents ($9.00).

E. For every Charter or Dispensation to form and open a new Commandery, which shall include full payment for a charter if afterward granted; two hundred dollars ($200.00).

F. Its pro-rata share of the cost of liability insurance as billed and supplied by this Grand Commandery; provided that such payment to the Grand Recorder shall be due no later than 45 days after receipt of invoice or June 15, whichever is earlier.

G. All assessments which may have been from time to time by this Grand Commandery, provide, that no assessment shall be payable by a constituent Commandery unless it has been proposed, notice, and passed in full compliance with the procedures for amending these statutes, as set forth in section 474 herein; and further provided, that at the discretion of the Grand Commander, the payment of such assessments to the Grand Recorder shall be due no later than 45 days after receipt of invoice or June 15, whichever is earlier. (2009)

SECTION 406.

SECTION 407. No representative of a Commandery shall be entitled to a VOTE unless the current dues (and any other indebtedness) of his Commandery to the Grand Commandery are paid on or before July 1st, prior to the Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery.

If there be any arrearages from previous years past due from any Commandery to the Grand Commandery for assessments, fees, or financial obligations of any type; no representative of such debtor Commandery shall be entitled to a VOTE unless the current year’s dues plus a payment satisfactory to the Grand Commander and the Grand Recorder upon the arrearages shall have been paid on or before July 1st, prior to the Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery.

ELECTION AND APPOINTMENT OF GRAND OFFICERS

SECTION 408. All officers of the Grand Commandery shall be elected except the Grand Prelate Grand Standard Bearer, Grand Sword Bearer, Grand Warder and the Grand Sentinel, who shall be appointed by the Grand Commander. In addition, the Grand Commander may, in his discretion, and as the good of the Order may require, appoint a Grand Color Bearer of the Grand Commandery.

When more than one name is in nomination, the election shall be by ballot on voting tags as issued by the Committee on Credentials at the time of registration.
When only one name is in nomination, the election may be by acclamation.

The election of Officers shall be held on the last day of the Annual Conclave at an hour selected during the first session.

GRAND OFFICERS’ POWERS AND DUTIES

GRAND COMMANDER

SECTION 409. The duties of the Grand Commander shall be those enumerated in the statutes of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America.
SECTION 410. During the recess of the Grand Commandery, the Grand Commander exercises all the executive powers of the body, and he shall report his action in full thereon to the next annual conclave of the Grand Commandery for its final action. OFFICERS’ BONDS

SECTION 438. With respect to any constituent Commandery which owns funds greater than the amount subject to reimbursement by the Grand Commandery Fiscal Officers’ Fund, the Treasurer and Recorder shall be bonded by a position form of bond that covers the positions of Treasurer and Recorder from a corporate surety company authorized to do business in the State of Illinois. The bonds shall be in the amounts that the Finance Board shall from time to time determine and be deposited with the Commander. (2018)

INSURANCE

SECTION 438A. Each Constituent Commandery shall carry insurance property insurance on its paraphernalia, equipment, and other property as listed in the Annual Report and Inventory in such amounts as recommended by the Finance Board and general liability insurance in an amount of at least One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence and Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) annual aggregate, insuring against negligent acts of the Commandery, its officers and members while performing work or business of the Commandery. A certificate of insurance may be required to be produced at the annual inspection of the Commandery. (2017)

SEAL

SECTION 439. Each Commandery shall have a seal, giving the name and number thereof, an impression of which shall be deposited with the Grand Recorder.

SECTION 440. Each Commandery in this jurisdiction that has adopted a coat of arms, shall file a copy of the same with the Grand Recorder.

POWERS

SECTION 441. A Chartered Commandery has power to decide for itself, who shall be admitted to its membership by admission or affiliation; to confer the Orders of Knighthood in accordance with the usages of the Order and the regulations of the Grand Commandery; to exercise original jurisdiction in the trial and discipline of all its members (save the Commander) and all non-affiliated Knights and members of the Commanderies under dispensation within its jurisdiction; to provide for the current and necessary expenses by an assessment upon its members or by annual dues payable annually in advance, and in case of deficiency in the amount needed to defray its necessary expenses, to impose a special assessment for the purpose; to affiliate Knights created in other Commanderies; to grant demits to its members; to be represented in Grand Commandery, and to instruct its representatives therein; and generally, to transact its business and regulate its private affairs, in accordance with the bylaws and statutes of the Grand Commandery.

PLURAL MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 441A.

(1). Plural membership may be held (a) in any constituent Commanderies of this Grand Jurisdiction; (b) in a constituent Commandery of this Grand Jurisdiction and in a constituent Commandery of another Grand Jurisdiction, providing the law of such other Grand Jurisdiction also so provides; or (c) in a constituent Commandery of this Grand Jurisdiction and in a subordinate Commandery.

(2) Election to Plural Membership shall be upon petition for Plural Membership; accompanied by a Certificate of Good Standing issued by the Commandery of which the petitioner is a member, and, if certified from another Grand Jurisdiction, a statement over seal of petitioner’s Commandery, stating Dual Membership is permitted to its members.

(3) Plural members shall be subject to all dues and assessments and entitled to all rights and privileges of full membership in both Commanderies, except that a Plural Member cannot be an elected officer in more than one Commandery at the same time.

(4) Loss of active Plural Membership through action initiated by either Commandery, shall cause loss of membership in both Commanderies; provided, however, that a Plural Member may demit from either Commandery without loss of membership in the other.

(5) Plural members shall be clearly identified as such on all records and reports of constituent Commanderies, including notation thereof on dues cards and/or receipts.

(6). Exception to the annual assessment for a Knight Templar holding a Life Sponsorship shall not apply in more than one Commandery. If a Life Sponsor becomes a plural member, he assumes assessment responsibility in the second Commandery. A Life Sponsor demitting from one Commandery and affiliating with another, carries his exemption status with him and the Commandery with which he affiliates then credits his exemption on its roll. The Commandery from which he demits then removes his exemption status from its reports.

SECTION 442. A majority vote at a stated conclave may determine the propriety of an assessment and the amount thereof providing that notice of action on such proposed assessment has been mailed to the membership not less than 10 days prior to the date of the Conclave. An assessment for social entertainment or for expenses incident to a pilgrimage cannot be enforced against one not participating there

NEW COMMANDERIES

SECTION 443.

SECTION 443A. No Commandery under dispensation shall move the place of holding its Conclave from the locality named in its dispensation unless the Grand Commander, or the Grand Commandery, as the case may be, upon a petition signed by a majority of the members of such Commandery U. D., shall grant an amendment to such dispensation, changing the place designated therein for the holding of the Conclave of such Commandery U. D.

SECTION 446. No names shall be inserted as members in the charter of a new Commandery, except the names of petitioners, those receiving the orders therein and those admitted by affiliation.

SECTION 447. The officers of a Commandery under dispensation cannot be elected or installed, and it cannot be represented in the Grand Commandery; neither can it discipline its members, nor adopt by-laws.
SECTION 448. No Commandery hereafter chartered shall be named after a living person.

JURISDICTION OF COMMANDERIES

SECTION 449. Jurisdiction of all Commanderies in the State of Illinois shall be concurrent. By concurrent jurisdiction is meant that the territorial jurisdiction exercised by one Commandery is the common property of all Commanderies in the State. Any Commandery may receive the petition of any duly qualified Royal Arch Mason residing in the State of Illinois and act thereon.

SECTION 450.

SECTION 451. Waiver of personal jurisdiction over a rejected petitioner cannot be granted within three (3) years of the date of his last rejection, except by unanimous ballot. All applications for waiver of personal jurisdiction shall be presented at a stated conclave and lie over until the next stated conclave before action is taken thereon.

RECORDS AND REPORTS

SECTION 452. After the records of a conclave have been read, corrected and approved, they cannot be altered.

SECTION 453. Each Commandery under the jurisdiction of this Grand Commandery shall make out and return to the Grand Recorder, at the conclusion of each Fiscal Year (May 31st), a statement showing all work done, and such other information as may be required from the first day of June to the thirty-first day of May inclusive of that Fiscal Year.

All reports shall be completed and returned to the grand Recorder promptly, in accordance with request shown on form and/or statute.

PETITIONING AND BALLOTING

SECTION 454. All petitions for the orders or for membership shall be presented and read in open Commandery, at the conclave when they are received, and the statement of facts contained in the petition shall be entered in the records of the Commandery.

SECTION 454A. A petition for the Orders or for membership may be balloted upon at the stated Conclave at which it is received in the Commandery. A petition for the Orders or for membership may be balloted upon at a special Conclave at which it is received in the Commandery, provided that a notice stating the business to be transacted shall be mailed or sent by electronic mail to all members within 100 miles not less than 10 days prior to such special Conclave.

SECTION 455.

SECTION 455A. The written report of the committee to which the petition is referred shall be separately made; after the final ballot on the petition, the destruction of the report shall be made a matter of record.

SECTION 455B. At the conclave when ballot is taken, the petition shall be again read in open Commandery, prior to the spreading of the ballot. Should a petition for the orders or for membership be lost or destroyed after its reception by the Commandery, no ballot shall be had on such petition until a duplicate petition, duly signed by the petitioner and two qualified recommenders is obtained; but such duplicate petition need not lie over for final action beyond the requisite time following reception of original petition.

Balloting for Orders or membership may be by group or separate ballot.

(1) Two or more petitions, whether for Orders or membership, regularly presented, may be balloted upon at one time. After such ballot has been taken, and duly examined by the Captain General, Generalissimo and Commander, if it is unanimous, the Commander shall declare each petitioner elected. In the event of the appearance of a black ball in such group ballot, there must be a ballot upon each petition separately.

(2) Each petition may be balloted on separately. After such ballot has been taken, and duly examined by the Captain General, Generalissimo and Commander, the Commander shall announce the result thereof; provided that if only one negative vote appears, the Commander may order one additional re-ballot before the result has been announced, and before any member of the Commandery present has left the Asylum. The result of this ballot shall be final and shall be so declared by the Commander.

SECTION 455C. A petitioner for the orders or for membership, if rejected, shall not be entitled to any information save that he is rejected; and any Knight who shall communicate to him any information, as to who were present, or who advocated or opposed his admission shall be subject to charges and upon conviction may be expelled from the Order.

SECTION 455D.

SECTION 455E. Any unaffiliated Knight Templar who has petitioned for membership, and whose petition has been rejected, may renew the said petition to the same or any other Commandery at any subsequent stated conclave.

SECTION 456. The Commander may grant a Committee appointed on a petition for the Orders or Membership, or any member thereof, more time; or in case any member of such Committee fails to report, may remove him in open Commandery and appoint another member of the Commandery in his place, who shall report at the same or the next subsequent Conclave of the Commandery.

CONFERRING OF ORDERS

SECTION 457. No Commandery shall confer the Orders of Knighthood for a less sum than forty-five dollars ($45.00).

SECTION 458. No candidate may sign the bylaws or become a member of the Commandery who has not lawfully received the Order of the Red Cross, Order of Malta, and Order of the Temple.

BYLAWS

SECTION 459. For the government of its affairs, each chartered constituent Commandery in this Grand jurisdiction shall enact such code of uniform bylaws as may be enacted by this Grand Commandery, but not in conflict with the laws of the Grand Encampment.

Provided, the amount of fees for conferring the Orders (not less than $45.00); the amount of annual dues for each member; the time or date of stated conclaves and the hour for opening such conclaves may be determined by such constituent Commanderies respectively. Provided, further, that bylaws, and/or amendments thereto, of constituent Commanderies shall not become operative unless or until approved by the Grand Commander, which approval shall be subject to review of the next succeeding annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery.

DUES

SECTION 460. Every member of a constituent Commandery, excepting Life Members and 50-year members, shall pay to its Recorder, on or before June 1st of each year, a minimum of fifty dollars ($50.00) or a sum in excess to be fixed by the bylaws of said constituent Commandery as annual dues and assessments. Starting in 2017 (2014)

Newly created Knights and those who are affiliated or reinstated prior to the first day of December in any Templar year shall pay current annual membership dues plus assessments in full. Those created, affiliated or reinstated after the first of December in any Templar year shall pay one-half of the current annual membership and assessments for the balance of that Templar year.

SECTION 460A. Any Sir Knight who has been a member of a constituent Commandery or Commanderies in good standing for a total of fifty (50) years, whether or not consecutive, shall not be required to pay any further dues. A letter from the Eminent Commander, attested by the Recorder, and under official seal of the Commandery shall notify the Grand Recorder, and no further per capita shall be paid on said member by the constituent Commandery or Commanderies.

SECTION 460B. At the first Stated Conclave in October of each year, the recorder shall report to the Commandery the names of each member in arrears for dues and/or other indebtedness to the Commandery, when, if not excused by a majority vote of the members present, the Commander shall appoint Committees of two members each to make personal calls upon, if possible, or otherwise contact, such delinquent members with reference thereto. Reports of such Committees shall be submitted to the Commander at the next or a specified subsequent Stated Conclave when, after review by the Commander, the reports shall be presented to the Commandery. If delinquency still exists, the Commander shall determine whether it is advisable to remit the dues of a member because of illness, infirmity or financial inability, and shall recommend remission to the Commandery for approval whenever he deems the same justified.

The Commandery has the right to remit the accrued dues of any worthy member when his means will not permit him to contribute to its support. If remission be not recommended, the process of suspension shall be undertaken. The Recorder shall be ordered to send a certified or registered letter to the delinquent member at his last known address requesting either payment of his indebtedness before a specific subsequent Conclave of the Commander, or his personal appearance (if possible) at such Conclave to show cause why he shouldn’t be suspended for non-payment of dues. This shall be deemed due notice, and the Commandery may if desired, proceed to suspend without his presence. If suspension proceedings are brought before the Commandery the Commander shall inform the Commandery of all pertinent facts regarding the delinquent member, and shall exhibit the return receipt of the certified or registered letter, (or the returned letter) before any action shall be taken by the Commandery. A member suspended for non-payment of dues can only be reinstated by his written petition therefor presented at a stated conclave of the Commandery and a majority vote by ballot at the next stated Conclave, and payment with the petition of such part of his dues in arrears as the Commandery may require.

CHANGING PLACE OF MEETING

SECTION 461. No chartered Commandery shall move the place of holding its Conclave from the locality named in its Charter, unless and until the Grand Commandery shall, in Annual Conclave, and after hearing the recommendation of the Committee on Charters and Dispensations, grant or direct amendment to the Charter of the constituent Commandery and authorize such relocation.

A Commandery may direct a petition for Charter amendment and relocation to the Grand Commandery (Grand Commander), provided it has been approved by a majority of the members present at a stated Conclave of the Commandery, after written notice of the proposition for relocation shall have been mailed to all members not less than 20 days prior thereto. The Grand Commander shall refer such petition to the Committee on Charters and Dispensations to investigate and report its recommendation at the next Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery. Should circumstances warrant, the Grand Commander may issue his dispensation to the constituent Commandery to temporarily relocate until the next Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery.

DISCIPLINE

SECTION 462. Violation of the laws of God, the laws of the land, the laws of morality, willful violation of the statues and regulations of the Grand Commandery, or the bylaws of the Commandery are offenses against this order, and subject the offender, after due trial according to the forms provided by the Grand Encampment, which are hereby declared mandatory, to such punishment as the degree of his offense may warrant.
SECTION 463. The use or approval, either actual or tacit, of such use of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors as a beverage in an asylum of Knights Templar or on the grounds of a Masonic Temple during the time that any Order is being conferred therein is strictly prohibited and shall subject every offender to discipline. Such use while in Templar uniform, either in whole or in part, (or approval) at any banquet, social, or other function given by, under the auspices of, or for the benefit of Knights Templar, is likewise prohibited and shall subject every offender to discipline.

SECTION 464. Smoking in open Commandery during the conducting of any part of the Orders is prohibited.

SECTION 465. No Commandery in this jurisdiction shall be permitted to hold a conclave on Sunday, except for the purpose of attending funerals or divine worship.

SECTION 466. All Knights Templar are forbidden the use of facsimiles of banners, crests, name or numbers of Commanderies or other emblems of Masonic Knighthood, for business purposes.

SECTION 467. The wearing of jewels, Coat of Arms, or badges of any body of Masonry, other than Templar Jewels, is prohibited in any public display of the Order.

SECTION 468. Any Commander who permits members of his Commandery or any organization of its members to tender their services to any other organization other than Knights Templar for any purpose without a dispensation from the Grand Commander has committed an offense and is subject to discipline.

SECTION 469. The formation of any incorporated organization, within the membership of any Commandery of this jurisdiction, is prohibited, except it shall be permitted to form associations or corporations under the laws of the State of Illinois for the one and only purpose of holding and administering real estate to be used for Commandery or Masonic lodge purposes.

COMMANDERY INSPECTION DIVISIONS

SECTION 470. At the beginning of each new Templar year, the Grand Commander shall divide the constituent Commanderies comprising the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Illinois into so many Divisions as he may deem appropriate. (2008)

SECTION 471. At or immediately after the close of each annual Conclave of this Grand Commandery, the Grand Commander shall assign to each of the above Divisions, by general orders, one of the following Grand Officers: Deputy Grand Commander, Grand Generalissimo, Grand Captain General, Grand Senior Warden, or Grand Junior Warden. Each officer so assigned shall inspect the Commanderies in his Division in accordance with an official schedule promulgated by the Grand Commander, directing the correction of any omission or error that he may find to exist and giving such advice and instruction as may appear judicious. In the event of the inability of the Inspecting Officer to appear at the Official Inspection as assigned due to illness or other emergency, such as dangerously inclement weather or personal family obligation, the Inspection may proceed as scheduled under the direction of another Grand Officer or Past Grand Commander chosen by the Grand Commander to act in his stead.

SECTION 472. Shortly after the Official Inspection of each Commandery, a separate report shall be made by the Inspecting Officer of its condition, solely for the information of the Grand Commandery, to assist the Grand Commander to correct any irregularities that may exist, to the end of promoting the general welfare and best interests of the Order; so much of said reports as show the grades and standings of each Commandery on inspection shall be incorporated in the printed proceedings of this Grand Commandery.

SECTION 473. In the event of the issuance of a dispensation by the Grand Commander he shall assign someone of the above named Grand Officers to inspect the Commandery, under dispensation and should a charter be granted, he shall assign the Commandery to the permanent division most convenient to its

AMENDMENT OF STATUTES

SECTION 474. The Grand Commandery, in Annual Conclave, by a simple majority vote of the registered delegates, may revise, amend, and alter so much of the Statutes of this Grand Commandery as are not a part of the laws of the Grand Encampment; provided, that such action shall not be taken, unless the member proposing an amendment or change files the same with the Grand Recorder by April 15 preceding the Annual Conclave and it is contained in the official notice of the Annual Conclave. (2017)

DECISIONS OF GRAND MASTER

SECTION 475. Any decision of the Grand Master, or action of the Grand Encampment of the United States, contravening, taking form, or adding to any paragraph, section, or article of these statues and regulations, shall be binding on this Grand Commandery; and due notice of such alterations, amendment, or decision shall be furnished to each constituent Commandery by the Grand Commander.

REPEAL

SECTION 476. All Statutes, Laws, and Regulations heretofore enacted, adopted, or approved in conflict herewith (Sec. 400-476), are hereby repealed.

UNIFORMS - STANDARD

SECTION 477. CAP – for Mantle

(22) The Templar Cap shall follow the design and specifications of the style worn by the Sovereign Great Priories, three inches in depth and very slightly flared at the top. Members of the Order below the rank of Past Grand Commander: The cap shall be of bright red velvet (or silk) and the cross displayed on the front of the cap shall be appropriate to rank, red Passion Cross for the members below the rank of Commander, red Passion Cross with gold rays for Commanders and Past Commanders; and red Templar Cross for all Grand Officers and Past Grand Officers entitled to permanent rank. Past Grand Commander: The cap shall be purple velvet (or silk) with purple Templar Cross.

COMMANDERY BADGE

(23) The distinctive badge of a Constituent Commandery shall be worn on the right breast of the mantle, the Badge will be no less than five (5) inches or more than eight (8) inches high, the Badge of the Commandery will be superimposed upon the Malta Cross, or the Malta Cross will be incorporated within the Commandery Badge. The design shall be approved by the Grand Commandery Committee on Jewels and Uniforms. No other ornamentation or Templar jewels or recognitions shall be worn on the mantle, a Jewel of Office may be worn around the neck suspended from a cord of appropriate color to rank or a silver chain.

CLOTHING TO BE WORN WITH CAP AND MANTLE

(24) All Sir Knights: Black Trousers, white long sleeve shirt, black four in hand tie, black shoes and hose and white cloth gloves.

SWORD AND SCABBARD

UNIFORM MUST BE WORN

(26) No member shall be admitted to a conclave of his Commandery unless in uniform, which must consist of at least, belt, sword, and fatigue cap, unless excused by vote of his Commandery, or by his Commander. Visiting Knights may be admitted without uniform.

SUMMER UNIFORM

The summer uniform is a short-sleeve white shirt, black tie, it has shoulder identification of your rank, it has a place to have a metal badge, which has the Malta Cross and things that belong as to your rank. It wears a white cap. This uniform is for when you meet in summer and it’s hot and you don’t have air conditioning, walking in parades, and things like that. Cannot be used in conferrals. (2004 passed on floor)

PRELATE’S UNIFORM

The uniform of the Prelate is the same as the other officers of the line. The robes for council and asylums should not be deviated from and must not be worn in any public display of the order.

PRELATE’S ROBES

The costume for the Prelate shall be as prescribed by the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar in Section 253 or elsewhere in its Statutes.
RED CROSS ROBES

There shall be worn in the Jewish council chamber a high priest’s robe, and nine or more members’ robes. The High Priest’s Robe shall be so made as to faithfully represent the ancient Jewish high priest’s dress; that is to say, white above the waist and blue below the waist, except the extreme bottom which shall be white for the distance of eight to ten inches, with flounce or trimming of white lace; around the lower edge of the blue fabric in the skirt, alternately and equal-distance shall be twelve gilt or gold bells, and twelve knot or woven pomegranates, three each of the colors blue, purple, scarlet and white; an ephod representing gold cloth, trimmed around the edges with blue with gilt lace thereon to be put on over the head and coming about twelve inches below the waist both front and back; around the waist over the ephod in front and underneath it behind, to be worn a girdle, about four inches wide, displaying the colors blue, purple, scarlet and white, woven or embroidered; sleeves of white with blue bands at the wrists. A turban or mitre of white with a band of gilt wire lace fifteen lignes wide embroidered on which in red silk shall be the Hebrew characters that were emblazoned on the front piece of the mitre of the ancient High Priest of Israel. Suspended from the neck by a gilt chain shall be a gold-plated breastplate set with the twelve stones.

The Members’ Robes shall be of gray or ashen colored material, made plain to button in front and fasten about the waist with a gray worsted cord with tassel. A Jewish turban of roll or twist pattern, of same material as robes; without ornamentation.

For the Persian Audience Chamber there shall be seven robes for the officers of the court, and not less than three costumes for Persian guards (at least seven guards’ costumes should be used, if possible.)

For Sovereign Master, an under robe of red trimmed with bright colors in embroidery or appliqué (green, purple, yellow), Persian patterns only; conspicuously displayed a blazing sun. A mantle of purple, either in solid color or brocade, trimmed with embroidered or brocaded bands of bright Persian colors. A turban or headdress (no metal crown) of the colors and materials used in robe.

For Prince Chancellor, an under robe of yellow, embroidered or trimmed in green and red in Persian designs, displaying the blazing sun; a mantle of green and red ornamented in bright colors. A headdress or turban of same materials as in robe.

For Prince Master of the Palace, an under robe of green, ornamented in red and yellow; a mantle of red, trimmed in bright colors and displaying the blazing sun. A turban or headdress of corresponding colors.

For Master of Finance, a robe of green, trimmed in yellow and red, Persian designs and effects, showing blazing sun; a short mantle of yellow trimmed in green. A turban or headdress to correspond.

For Master of Dispatches, same general style as for master of finance, except robe of red trimmed in yellow and green, mantle of green. Headdress or turban to correspond.

For Master of Calvary, a tunic of green trimmed in yellow reaching just below the knees, showing blazing sun on the breast, and trimmed in yellow and green. Leggings of gilt-cloth; mantle of green trimmed with red. Turban and headdress to correspond.

For Warden, a robe of orange trimmed in green and red; mantle of green and red. Headdress or turban to correspond.

For Persian Guards, a tunic of green trimmed in yellow reaching just below the knees, and having short sleeves, armlets; hose and strap sandals, spears, shields, and round Persian pot helmet. Blazing sun on breast of tunic and on shields.

One costume should differ slightly from the rest in more elaborate ornamentation, with addition of short shoulder mantle, and should be worn by person having command of the guards. It is recommended that all robes be made to open behind.

CANDIDATE’S COSTUME

There should be used in the work of the several orders, the following equipment for the candidate: Garb of slavery; royal mantle; pilgrim’s garb; pilgrim warrior’s costume; pilgrim penitent’s costume.

Garb of Slavery. Of coarse material, light brown or gray in color; plain in make.

date of election or rejection, the date of receiving the orders and signing the by-laws; notify all petitioners of their election and in case of rejection, see that they are notified by written notice, mailed to their last known address.  He shall transmit to the Grand Commandery all reports and statements required by the statutes and regulations.  He shall attend the meetings of the Finance board with his books and records when so requested, and shall deliver at the expiration of his term of office all books, documents, correspondence, and other property of the Commandery which may have come to his possession to his successor in office forthwith after such successor has been installed.

ANNUAL CONCLAVE

SECTION 10.  At the Annual Conclave, and in addition to the officers to be then elected, there shall be elected a Finance Board composed of five members of this Commandery; provided, not more than three of the officers elected or appointed shall be upon said Finance board, nor shall the Treasurer or Recorder be eligible to election to said Board.

APPOINTMENTS

The Commander elect shall, prior to his own installation, appoint a Standard Bearer, Sword Bearer, Warder, Sentinel, Guards, Hermits, and Color Bearer, who shall be installed with the officers elected.

THE FINANCE BOARD

SECTION 11.

A.  At the Annual Conclave, in addition to the officers to be then elected, there shall be elected a Finance Board composed of (insert a number that is at least three and not more than five) members of this Commandery; provided, at least one of those elected shall not be one of the officers elected or appointed, the Treasurer and Recorder shall be eligible to election to said Board when it is composed of five, and the quorum for said Board to act shall be three, whether it is composed of five or fewer.

B.  The Finance Board shall organize by selecting a chairman and a secretary; have general advisory supervision of the business affairs of the Commandery, reporting to the Commandery from time to time such recommendations, as in the judgment of such Board, shall be for the information and good of the Commandery; review the bills and claims against the Commandery prior to their presentation for payment; cause to be made annually by a competent accountant or an audit committee, a careful, complete, and correct review of all the records, journals, books, vouchers, papers, accounts, and annual reports of the Treasurer and of the Recorder for the last preceding fiscal year, generally conforming to the similar Corresponding requirements for Lodges by the Grand Lodge of Illinois; report the findings of such review in detail to the Commandery at the Annual Conclave; and report to the Commandery the amount of the bond of the Treasurer and of the Recorder, the surety thereon, and the form of such bond. (2018)
FEE – MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 12. The fee for membership shall be _______________ Dollars, which shall accompany the petition, and should the applicant be rejected, the fee shall be promptly returned to him.

FEE – ORDERS

SECTION 13. The fees for conferring the orders in this Commandery shall be ___________ Dollars, which in all cases shall be paid before the Order of the Red Cross is conferred. At least ____________ Dollars of the fees must accompany the petition and should the applicant be rejected, said sum shall be returned to him.

DUES

SECTION 14. Every member of this Commandery, except honorary members, life members, and 50-year members, shall pay to the recorder the sum of ________________ Dollars as annual dues, payable in advance on June 1st of each year; provided that newly admitted or demitted members shall be chargeable only with the monthly pro rata of the annual dues covering that portion of the year during which their actual membership continues.

DELIQUENTS

SECTION 15. At the first stated conclave in September of each year, the recorder shall report to the Commandery the names of all members in arrears for dues, when, if not excused by a majority vote of the members present, the Commander shall order a final notice sent to each of them, addressed to their last known residence, to appear at the next or a subsequent stated conclave and show cause why they should not be suspended for non-payment of dues.

Thereafter subsequent procedure and final action shall be in accord with the provisions of Section 460 of the Statutes of the Grand Commandery of Illinois.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 16. Any member of this Commandery not indebted for dues or otherwise, may upon application at any stated Conclave and upon a majority vote of the members present, become a life member, by paying the sum not less than 20 times yearly dues to the Commandery. (2014)

LIFE MEMBERSHIP FUND

SECTION 17. The funds arising from life membership shall constitute a “Life Membership Fund” to be kept intact under the charge of the Finance Board, and securely invested by them, and only the interest thereon may be used from time to time; provided that at the death of a life member the amount paid by him for life membership may be released from the life membership fund and be used for general purposes.

INVESTMENTS AND CONTINGENT FUND

SECTION 18. Monies of the Commandery heretofore or hereafter invested in bonds, loans or securities can be disposed of before maturity only in the following manner, to-wit:

A proposition in writing, setting forth the reasons and purpose for the sale of any of the securities of the Commandery, shall be submitted and presented to the Commandery at a stated conclave at least four weeks previous to its consideration.

A notice shall be sent to all members of the Commandery of the proposal to use all or any portion of the securities of the Commandery at least two (2) weeks prior to the stated conclave at which said proposal is to be acted upon.

It shall be necessary for a majority of the members present to vote in favor of the proposition.
before it can be adopted.
Any money which may be collected on maturity of any bond or investment shall be reinvested by the Commandery on recommendation of the Finance Board and by a majority vote of the members present when such action is taken.

ADDITIONS TO BYLAWS

SECTION 19. Additions to these bylaws must be offered at a stated conclave; notice of the proposed addition and the time at which action upon it will be taken, must be mailed to all members of the Commandery at least five days prior to the date of such proposed action. Every addition will require the consent of a majority of the members present when the vote is taken for its adoption, at which time an amendment to the addition, if germane to the subject, may be acted upon without further notice being given to the members. If adopted, the addition or additions shall not become effective until approved by the Grand Commander or Grand Commandery.

STANDING RESOLUTIONS

HONORARY PAST COMMANDER (1959)

WHEREAS, the title of Past Commander implies that the holder of the title has served a constituent Commandery as its presiding officer and as such has performed all of the duties incumbent to that office, and
WHEREAS, the title is one of great honor and respect because of the service to the Order required to achieve it, and
WHEREAS, the conferring of the title “Honorary Past Commander” without the recipient having performed the duties of a Commander would tend to degrade the title of “Past Commander” and WHEREAS, the conferring of the title of “Honorary Past Commander” would remove some of the incentive for a member to “regularly go through the chairs” and acquire the title of Past Commander by honest effort and service to the Order:

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Grand Commandery of Illinois go on record as opposing the practice of creating “Honorary Past Commander” and that some other means be created to honor those who have rendered valuable and timely service to the Order

RANK OF PAST COMMANDER
TERM OF SERVICE (1966)

RESOLVED: That the phrase “term of service” (Sec. 235 G.E.S.) as a qualifying requirement for the title “Past Commander” shall be understood to include:
1. Completion of the full term of service as Commander, with a record of regular attendance as presiding Commander at the stated Conclaves of his Commandery (Sec. 235 G.E.S. – Sec.
431 G.C.S. Ill.)
2. Faithful discharge of the duties assigned by the statute and established custom to the office of Commander. (Installation Ceremony)
3. A record of attendance at the Grand Conclave of the Grand Commandery of Illinois during his term of service as Commander. (Sec. 67 G.E.C.)

Objection to the retention and use of the title “Past Commander,” based on non-compliance with these requirements, may be filed with the Grand Commander by any member of this Grand Commandery not less than 30 days prior to the Annual Grand Conclave next following the completion of a Commander’s term of service. If found warranted, the Grand Commander may, at his discretion, and subject to the approval of the Grand Commandery, order the title withheld from the Sir Knight in the official records of the Grand Commandery.
RITUAL CONTROL (1965)

The ritualistic materials of the Orders of the Red Cross, Malta and Knight Templar are under the sole supervision of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America, and may be issued and published by it alone. (Sec. 3, 231, 232 Grand Encampment Statutes)

The Grand Commandery of Illinois through exclusive right of purchase and ownership shall maintain a registration and control of all rituals leased to Grand Officers, and constituent Commanderies within this Grand Jurisdiction.

DISTRIBUTION OF RITUALS TO OFFICERS OF THE GRAND COMMANDERY (1965)

The Grand Recorder shall lease one Ritual to each of the following officers of the grand Commandery.

- Grand Commander,
- Deputy Grand Commander,
- Grand Generalissimo,
- Grand Captain General,
- Grand Senior Warden,
- Grand Junior Warden,
- Grand Treasurer,
- Grand Recorder,
- Grand Standard Bearer,
- Grand Sword Bearer,
- Grand Warder;
- and upon request, to Past Grand Commanders.

The Grand Recorder shall obtain an official receipt from each Grand Officer receiving a ritual, a new receipt to be signed each year. These Rituals to be presented each year at the Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery and returned to the Grand Recorder at the termination of the Officer’s status as a Grand Officer, or upon resignation or death.

DISTRIBUTION OF RITUALS TO CONSTITUENT COMMANDERIES (1965)

The Grand Recorder shall lease and register eleven numbered rituals to each constituent Commandery.

Each constituent Commandery shall maintain and regularly account for eleven Rituals, one for each of the following officers: Commander, Generalissimo, Captain General, Senior Warden, Junior Warden, Prelate, Recorder, Standard Bearer, Sword Bearer, Warder, and Sentinel.

An official receipt, as furnished by the Grand recorder, shall be taken from each officer entitled to a Ritual at the time of installation, which receipt shall be returned to the Grand Recorder by the Recorder. An acknowledgment record of possession shall also be spread upon the records of the Commandery. All Rituals shall be present at the time of the annual installation of Officers (Sec. 144 Grand Encampment Statutes); and at the Annual Inspection.

Additional Rituals leased and registered to constituent Commanderies for use in ritualistic work shall be under the same controls as required for Officers’ rituals.

Constituent commanderies may obtain new rituals (additional or replacement) at a charge of $6.00 each. Orders must be accompanied by payment in advance, and shall be directed to the Grand Recorder over the seal of the Commandery.

PUBLIC APPEARANCE (1970)

WHEREAS:  Sec. 62 (a) G. E. Constitution declares the Order of Knights Templar to be a uniformed Order, and

WHEREAS:  It is the considered opinion of this grand Commandery that the public image which a Commandery should present, display, maintain, and enhance is that of a uniformed, disciplined fraternity of Knights of the temple,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:  That no Commandery of this Grand Jurisdiction shall form and/or appear in public for escort duty, guard duty, parade, or in formation, unless clothed in the uniform prescribed by this Grand Commandery.
TREASURER-RECORDER

WHEREAS: The elected offices and officers of Grand Recorder and Grand Treasurer, and constituent Commandery Treasurer and Recorder, are by Statute and Law, separate and assigned by Statute and Law, to inter-related, but necessarily distinctly separate duties and responsibilities, this Grand Jurisdiction as a standing policy, does not approve of, nor permit adoption of Bylaws for consolidation of these offices into the one office of “Grand Recorder” and/or “Recorder.”
